

CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY . . . The Current Support campaign for the Torrance YMCA was opened this week when General Chairman Sam Levy (right) and Advance Gifts Chairman LaVerne N. Gill kicked off the advance gifts section of the drive. Main impetus will be for members in the Century Club, composed only of those who have contributed $100 or more to the campaign. Local business and civic leaders met with Levy and Gill to hear the campaign plans at a luncheon at which more than $1000 was raised to start the campaign, Levy reported.

Boosters Set Monday Meet

Plans for a dinner to honor outstanding Torrance High School students will be made at a meeting of the Torrance Boosters Club next Monday at 8 p.m. at the YMCA.

The dinner is planned to honor students in various extra-curricular activities. Members of the various clubs will be asked to send representatives to the dinner.

Members of the club pointed out that it is open to all men in the city, not just fathers of THS students. New members who have not received membership cards yet will be able to pick them up at the meeting or will receive them early in February.

POPULATION GAIN

Between 1930 and 1940 the Pacific coast states showed an 18.8 percent population gain while the north west central states in the same period increased by only 1.7 percent.
